WE LIKE IT!

To me, Cedarville College is opportunity: to give and to receive. It is a school in which I am able to contribute to its well-being by standing for its principles, living by its disciplines, cooperating in its programs, and praying for its needs. I also am able to give myself over to my studies and, in particular, to the study of the Word of God. While giving, I actually am receiving. I gain an appreciation for its standards, intellectual equipment for further training, experience in leadership, and love for the Lord and His Word. Cedarville College is a reciprocal agreement in which I gain much more than I give.

Dave Warren

"Why did I choose Cedarville?" Because this is where the Lord led me! This was made evident to me when I first heard of the college. It's not just every day that the president of a college that you have never heard of, is found sitting in the same restaurant as you and your family. Especially when the college is in Cedarville, Ohio and you live in Fort Lauderdale, Florida! This was my experience and it seemed to be nothing less than a miracle. How I praise the Lord for His precious hand of guidance in leading me to this God-centered, Christian college of liberal arts. For when you're where the Lord wants you--you can't be anything but joyous!

Sally Nordine

What are the advantages of going to Cedarville College? This is the question that faces you as a prospective student. Cedarville College is a Christian college. This is important. Every teacher is a Christian and they are ready to help any student. Your fellow students are also Christians. Since Cedarville does have this Christian atmosphere, you can become more firmly established in the Word of God. Cedarville is a small college. This helps considerably when help is needed in a subject. The teacher has time to spend with his students.

Frank Warnken

Where would I be now if Christ had not sought me out and saved me? One thing is quite certain--I would not be here at Cedarville. What a marvel our salvation is! Yet, many of us have not thanked Him from the depths of our hearts for a long time. I will never be able to thank God enough for leading me here to Cedarville. Not only did He lead me here, but he has kept me here financially for three and one-half years. (Phil. 4:19) My Lord has come to mean so much more to me since I have studied the Word of God through Bible courses and have seen the Word as it was related to fields such as sociology, my major field of study. ## A word about admissions . . .

Prospective students seeking admission to Cedarville College should be able to answer "Yes" to the following questions:

1. Are you born again?
2. Will your pastor, high school counselor and friends recommend you?
3. Will you graduate from high school?
4. Are you in the top two-thirds of your class?
5. Have you taken recommended high school subjects?
6. Have you taken or will you take the American College Test?

More information and application blanks are available: Write to: The Registrar, Cedarville College, Cedarville, Ohio.

Enrollment Limited?

Cedarville's enrollment reached a new high of 501 this past fall. Of this number, 210 were Freshmen or Transfer students.

We plan TO ACCEPT UP TO 250 new students for the 1964-65 school year.

So, there is room for you if you meet admission requirements. Apply soon!

From the President's Desk

Dear Friends:

We sincerely believe Cedarville has a good program to offer Christian young people who desire a Christ-centered College education. I would encourage high school seniors and graduates to consider the opportunities here when planning for the future. More young people are doing this every year.

In order to meet the demands of a growing enrollment, we must expand our facilities. Christian parents and other members of our churches must get a vision of the problem if we are to keep pace with demands placed upon us by your students. The next building on our campus should be a new library. We cannot build it without your help. For the next few months all money received from the Cedarville College Book Club will be used to improve our library facilities. Will you join with us in this Program for Progress?

Sincerely in Christ,

James T. Jeremiah
